Manali

Brief Information

An ideal destination for honeymooners and adventure junkies alike, the town of Manali is a mix of old and new. You can do as little or as much as you want there. It's a magical place bordered by a cool pine forest and the raging Beas River, which give it a special energy. And anyone who is looking for thrilling adventure sports will love Manali. Fishing, whitewater rafting, paragliding, skiing, mountaineering, and hiking are all on offer in or around Manali.

Manali is divided into two parts - Manali town (New Manali) and Old Manali. Usually, foreigners dominated old Manali to the woods, villages around and beyond Manu temple to the walking path around Hadimba temple. And New Manali is usually occupied with middle-class budgeted hotels and excursions.
