KERALA

Beyond the Backwaters

Kerala, a verdant tapestry woven with nature's finest threads, is a land where at every turn, tranquility meets exuberance. Quite fittingly, it was tagged as "God's Own Country," for it is truly a land whose beauty is unrivaled by any other place. Imagine this: serene backwaters mirroring the sky, lush green hills carpeted with tea plantations, beaches kissed by gentle waves, and a rich cultural heritage as magnificent as its landscapes.

From Kochi, the bustling city with a strong colonial charm and high-energy art scene, to Alleppey's tranquil backwaters, with life gliding by on houseboats, it is a state that really has it all. The hill station of Munnar, nestled in the heart of mist-laden mountains, will soothe your soul, while the cliff-tops of the coastal town of Varkala invite you to relax.
